Huronia Players is a community theatre driven by dedicated members volunteering their time to create quality productions. As a member, you will also have the opportunity to join in socials or to sign up for any of our training workshops. No experience is necessary. Theatre provides a venue for people with wide ranging interests – from carpentry, lighting, sound, sewing, graphics, acting or organizational skills – we can find the right fit for you.

All memberships, youth (6 to 17 years) and adult are $10 per person. Adult members (18 and over) have a vote at our general meetings. This form is NOT a commitment to any specific play or activity for this season. This is only to give us some guidelines as to where you will most enjoy being involved - training is available. We use this information to contact people to get involved in a specific event/activity within the theatre group
